

To all Auditors and MSCS Licensees of CRO

The Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS), as part of its efforts towards ensuring credibility, and sustainability of certification services has been continuously working towards new initiatives, training, and upgradation of skills of our auditors and connecting with stakeholders with this objective.

Moving towards improving credibility, BIS has formulated an Auditor Book, which will provide hands on information to auditors and licensees of our organization. A Half day seminar on "MSC Stakeholders Meet" has been scheduled for 21 January 2019 from 0900 Hrs -1300 Hrs at India Habitat Centre, Lodi Road, New Delhi.

In the meet, new initiatives and information about recently launched certification programs and technical information on auditing practices will be discussed. An Auditor Book and online empanelment software Module will be released during the programme. Our objective would be to enable interaction among various auditors and auditee which will result in improving the organizational knowledge and in turn benefit society.

The program is also aimed at External Auditors who would like to get empanelled as BIS auditors and take up BIS audits in future. The online application, evaluation, technical sector knowledge requirement and remuneration of auditors will be explained in the program.

Like most of our events, this is going to be highly attended and seats are limited and is subject to first come first serve basis. We look forward to your active participation.
