

241

SYNOPSIS

Doc: MHD 06 (13125) IS/ISO 15675:2016 Cardiovascular implants and artificial organs - Cardiopulmonary bypass systems - Arterial blood line filters

Scope:

This Indian Standard specifies requirements for sterile, single-use, arterial blood line filters intended to filter and remove emboli, debris, blood clots and other potentially hazardous solid and gaseous material from the blood of humans during cardiopulmonary bypass surgery.

Salient features of content:

This Indian Standard includes Scope, Normative references, Terms and Definitions, Requirements including biological characteristics, physical characteristics and performance characteristics, tests and measurements to determine compliance with this document, information supplied by the manufacturer and packaging,

c) Type/grades/classes, if any covered in the standard: Nil.

Chandran Kumar
3/7/19