NATIONAL FOREWORD

(Formal clauses to be added later)

This draft Indian Standard which is identical with ISO/FDIS 11956 ‘Adventure tourism — Cyclotourism — Requirements and Recommendations’ issued by International Organization for Standardization (ISO) will be adopted by the Bureau of Indian Standards on recommendation of the Travel, Tourism, and Hospitality Related Services Sectional Committee, SSD 02 and approval of the Service Sector Division Council.

The text of ISO Standard has been approved as suitable for publication as an Indian Standard without deviations. Certain conventions are, however, not identical to those used in Indian Standards. Attention is particularly drawn to the following:

- Wherever the words ‘International Standard’ appear referring to this standard, they should be read as ‘Indian Standard’.
- Comma (,) has been used as a decimal marker while in Indian Standards, the current practice is to use a point (.) as the decimal marker.

In this adopted standard, reference appears to certain International Standards for which Indian Standard also exist. For undated references, the latest edition of the referenced document applies, including any corrigenda and amendment. The corresponding Indian Standard which is to be substituted in its respective place is listed below along with its degree of equivalence for the edition indicated:

International Standard	Corresponding Indian Standard	Degree of Equivalence
ISO 21101:2014	IS/ISO 21101 : 2014 - Adventure Tourism - Safety Management Systems - Requirements	Identical under dual numbering

ISO 21102	IS 16316:2022 – Adventure tourism Leaders Personnel competence	Identical under single numbering
ISO 21103	IS 16312 : 2015 – Adventure Tourism - Information for Participants	Identical under dual numbering

In reporting the result of a test or analysis made in accordance with this standard, if the final value, observed or calculated, is to be rounded off, it shall be done in accordance with IS 2: 1960 'Rules for rounding off numerical values (revised)'. The number of significant places retained in the rounded off value should be same as that of the specified value in this standard.

Scope of ISO/FDIS 11956 is as follows:

This document establishes requirements for adventure tourism involving Cyclotourism (e.g. road bike, mountain bike, gravel bike, bike packing or fat bike, including electric assisted bikes), relating to the safety of participants, leaders and assistants.

This document also establishes criteria relating to characteristics and the difficulty level for Cyclotourism route classification.

This document applies to Cyclotourism that is offered as a tourism product. Tourism product design involves a product planning and development phase that is not subject to this document. Some tourism products include Cyclotourism together with other tourism services (e.g. transfers, meals, lodging), but this document applies only to Cyclotourism, the additional tourism services being excluded from the scope.

This document is applicable to any kind of adventure tourism activity provider that offers tourism products consisting of Cyclotourism. This document is not applicable to bicycle rental with no adventure tourism purposes, which attend urban or rural mobility needs.

The maintenance and repair work of the bicycle are excluded in this document.
