

Summary of IS 1029: 1970

Specification for Hot Rolled Steel Strips (Baling)

This standard covers the requirements for Hot rolled steel strips of three grades Soft, Medium & Hard, of a nominal thickness of less than 3 mm and width less than 75mm, known as Baling Hoop. Three grades are based on Tensile properties of Steel strip. The Strips shall be manufactured from steel made by the Open Hearth, Electric, Duplex, Basic Oxygen or a combination of these processes. Testing of these product include Tensile test, Bend test, Freedom from defects and dimensions. Each length of the strip shall be marked indicating the size and grade of the material.